

Microsoft Internet Explorer 4

Course Level : Introduction
Course Duration : 1 day
Prerequisites : A working knowledge of Windows 95/98/NT

▼ Course Objectives

- What is Internet Explorer?
 - Connecting to the Internet
 - What is the Internet?
 - What is a Web Server?
 - What is the Microsoft Internet Explorer Web Browser?
 - The Explorer Program Window
 - The On-Line Web Tutorial
- Addresses, Links and Downloading
 - Web Sites and URL's
 - Using Hyperlinks
 - Responding to an E-mail link on a Web Page
 - What is FTP?
 - Virus's
 - Saving to disk
 - Plug-ins and their effects on downloading
 - What is Java?
 - Downloading Information from a Web Page
 - Viewing and Saving Code behind an Internet page
- Searching the Internet
 - Via Internet Explorer
 - Using Alta Vista
 - Using Lycos
 - Using InfoSeek
 - Using Excite
 - Using Hotbot
 - Using Web Crawler
 - Using Yahoo
 - Commonly used search engines
- E-Mail and Newsgroups
 - Using the Address book
 - Creating and sending e-mails
 - Attached files
 - Receiving e-mails
 - What are Newsgroups?
 - Locating and subscribing to newsgroups
 - Posting a message to a newsgroup

- Favourites, Security and Customising
 - Favourites
 - General
 - Connection
 - Navigation
 - Program
 - Security
 - Advanced
- Workshop